Halloween in NC

Nancy, now known in CDGA as Louise, parties all the time. Here are her crazy girlfriends at a "FUNdraiser."

Davis Elon is a bundle of joy. His brothers adore him, and he smiles all the time. He makes their chant, BOYS, BOYS, BOYS, complete. Who knows perhaps we might get another Boy or perhaps a girl, if the Good Lord decides.

Nancy visited AK and spent some quality time with her nephew, JAZ. Here they are boating amongst the majestic mountains.

Romeo, Kate, Keyli, Esequiel, Julie and Eric dressed up for the Holidays

Kerry Ed and Curty have had plenty of time together.
Curtis and Sarah's home is so welcoming, and everyone loves being together. Of course, the young boys make it special.

If you come to Canandaigua, the prettiest lake in the world. You must go sailing. The boys love it and can operate the tiller as well as me! Next year we'll get Davis Elon on the helm.

"Pa" and "Ganny" love being with our boys.

Kate, Keyli, Eric, Romeo, Julie at Camp Onanda on CDGA Lake celebrating Romeo's 1st Birthday.

Kerry Ed took everyone to a Rochester Red Wings baseball game. 1st time to a game for the boys. We had a great time.

Celebrating Eric's Birthday at the Holiday Harbour Clubhouse. We had a blast. So much fun to get with one another. As you can see, Eric is beginning to mellow out in his old age. LOL

Meg & Else are two of Nancy's best friends. Mine too.

CJ loves Davis.

We have an abundance of wonderful friends in Canandaigua, and we get together often. Each year Peggy and Mike host a very wild Christmas Party. I won't divulge the antics but there were a lot of Elves, fake Santas and a visit from Howard Stern.

Brothers are Best Friends. I wonder where they learned this.
